

CHICAGO MOVIES - "The Blues Brothers"

They'll never get caught. They're on mission from God.

In June, the American Center will screen classic American films from or about Chicago. As second part of Chicago Movies Series we will show John Landis' 1980 film "The Blues Brothers." After the release of Jake Blues from prison, he and brother Elwood go to visit the old home where they were raised by nuns. They learn the church stopped its support and will sell the place to the education authority, and the only way to keep the place open is if the $5000 tax on the property is paid within 11 days. The brothers decide to put their blues band back together and raise the money by staging a big gig. Will they make it in time?

The movie will be screened in English with English subtitles.
